

Ufficio Italiano Seta (Italian Silk Office) comprises 100 Italian silk producers, representing each ring of the textile chain of silk in Italy.

The core of Italian textile industry for silk is embodied in U.I.S: 900 million Euro of silk fabrics, scarves, ties, garments exported every year towards the most important markets all over the world, with a preponderant role in France, U.S.A., Germany, United Kingdom, China, for luxury products.

Italian silk industry represents 75% of industrial silk activities in Europe.

The President of Ufficio Italiano Seta is Giuseppe Bianchi (Seteria Bianchi Srl).

Ufficio Italiano Seta is a branch of Sistema Moda Italia, which is one of the world's largest organizations representing the textile and fashion industry.

The Federation represents a sector, with over 510,000 employees and nearly 60,000 companies, that is a mainstay of Italy's economy and manufacturing industry.

The Federation protects and promotes the interests of the sector and its members. It represents the entire industry on a national and international level and maintains relations with government agencies, public administration, and with economic, political, labor, and social organizations. SMI, which is committed to making the textile and fashion sector one of the most important economic resources of Italian industry.

28.04.2016